

Mark // Sweet Summer Breeze

Sweet summer breeze
Is dancing with my shadow
Life has just began
And I feel so easy
And I feel so blessed
Because you came into my world
Like a miracle

There's no time for memories
There's no time for plans
I live at this sweetest moment
I've joy of this wonderful time
There's no time for reality
When you live in a harmony
When the sweet summer breeze
Is dancing with you and me...
